

Collegium Cincinnati

Summer Sing 2023

Brahms Ein Deutes Requiem (London Version)
with Guest Conductor, Tucker Biddlecombe
Chorusmaster, Nashville Symphony
Director Of Choral Activities, Vanderbilt University

Don't miss this opportunity to sing one of the most profound pieces in the history of choral music, every note is a choral singer's dream. Led by special guest conductor Tucker Biddlecombe. This is a musical experience you do not want to miss.

No audition necessary. Registrants will receive a digital score for perusal, (hard copy available at first rehearsal, though tablets for performance are welcome) part learning resources, and suggestion to help with diction.

Registration opens April 1. Spots are limited 20 singers per section so sign up today!

Registration fee is 75 dollars.

Schedule

Rehearsals

Monday, July 24, 6:30-9:00 PM

Tuesday, July 25, 6:30-9:00 PM

Wednesday, July 26, 6:30-9:00 PM

Thursday, July 27, 6:30-9:00 PM

Concert

Friday, July 28, 7:30 PM

Concert will be performed with collaborative pianists including Collegium Artistic Director, Matthew Phelps. All registrants receive a 10 dollar off coupon for a 2023-2024 Collegium 5-concert Season pass, including Collegium's annual performance of Messiah.

