ABOUT COLLEGIUM CINCINNATI

Collegium Cincinnati is a professional choral-orchestral ensemble that embraces both the old and the new, and we invite our patrons to join us on a musical journey unlike any other they have taken. We revere the great masters, and we celebrate the new works that are bound to inspire and astound.

YOUR experience as a music lover is central to Collegium's mission.

You will always discover something new at a Collegium Cincinnati program. Whether it's as simple as singing along with the chorales in the St. John Passion, or experiencing the Brandenburg Concertos in a cozy downtown lounge, you will find yourself fully immersed in the musical experience.

Come in your jeans, come in your Sunday best – it's all fine with us. But, stick around after the concert – we want to get to know you!

HISTORY

Founded in 2011, Collegium Cincinnati has quickly garnered a reputation for the highest level of artistry. Beginning in 2014, the Collegium began presenting an annual Bach Festival, with city-wide performances involving numerous groups and performers. The group was founded as a non-profit in 2013, and became the in-residence ensemble at the beautiful Christ Church Cathedral in downtown Cincinnati in 2014.

OUR HOME

Our home is Christ Church Cathedral, which is one of the most active hubs of music in the city. Not only is it a beautiful space in which to hear music, but their instruments enhance our performances and their musicians are among the best in the city.

However, our reach is citywide. It is our hope that, by performing in locations throughout the city, we can bring our unique performances to people who wouldn't otherwise hear them.

We hope you will visit us sometime this year! We promise you will not be disappointed.
